DEDICATION | COMMITMENT | PERSONAL SERVICE

Specializing in the most serious and significant personal injury and general negligence cases, Gair, Gair, Conason, Rubinowitz, Bloom, Hershenhorn, Steigman & Mackauf has staked its reputation on its dedication, sensitivity and commitment to personal service. For more than 90 years, the Manhattan-based firm has handled cases throughout New York and New Jersey, ranging from construction and automobile accidents to medical malpractice and complex products liability claims. It has earned a national reputation as counsel to the profession, and many of its cases are referred by fellow members of the bar seeking the best representation for their clients. Recently, the firm has been recognized as one of the Top 50 law firms in the United States by The National Law Journal and Law.com.

IMPRESSIVE RECORD In the last 12 years alone, Gair, Gair, Conason's impressive track record includes more than 950 cases resulting in verdicts or settlements exceeding $1 million. Among the most notable awards were $103 million for a child who sustained brain damage at birth; $90 million for a child with cerebral palsy resulting from birth injuries; $28 million for a man injured in a car accident; $27.5 million for a pedestrian who suffered the loss of her leg after being struck by a bus; $26 million for a pedestrian struck by a truck; $20 million for a man injured at a construction site; $17 million for a young man disabled after a failed medical diagnosis; $16 million for a construction worker who fell from a scaffold; and $12.4 million in a wrongful death case in which a woman was killed in a Con Edison explosion; and a $7,750,000 settlement during trial in a Wrongful Death case on behalf of the family of a man killed while riding a snowmobile—the case was tried in Franklin County and is the largest settlement ever in that county.
