DEDICATION | COMMITMENT | PERSONAL SERVICE

Specializing in the most serious and significant personal injury and general negligence cases, Gair, Gair, Conason, Rubinowitz, Bloom, Hershenhorn, Steigman & Mackauf has staked its reputation on its dedication, sensitivity and commitment to personal service. For 100 years, the Manhattan-based firm has handled cases throughout New York and New Jersey, ranging from construction and automobile accidents to medical malpractice and complex products liability claims. It has earned a national reputation as “counsel to the profession,” states managing partner Ben Rubinowitz; many of its cases are referred by fellow members of the Bar seeking the best representation for their clients. The firm has been recognized as one of the Top 50 law firms in the United States by The National Law Journal and Law.com.

IMPRESSIVE RECORD The sum of verdicts and settlements obtained by the attorneys at Gair, Gair, Conason, Rubinowitz, Bloom, Hershenhorn, Steigman & Mackauf exceeds $2 billion. Among the recent verdicts and settlements obtained by the firm are an $85 million verdict for a pedestrian struck by a bus in New York City; record-setting settlement of $27.5 million with the Diocese of Brooklyn and Queens parishes for four young boys who were sexually abused; $71 million for a client who suffered a spinal injury during a car accident (the largest verdict in the country for this type of injury); $41.5 million verdict for the wrongful death of a New York City sanitation worker (one of the largest awards ever in Queens County); $3 million verdict in a medical malpractice case for failure to diagnose pancreatic cancer resulting in the death of an elderly man; $8.5 million settlement for a man struck by a car at an improperly marked New York City roadway construction project (no offer was made to settle the case prior to the verdict); $7.75 million settlement during trial for a snowmobile accident in Saranac Lake (the largest settlement ever in Franklin County); $6.25 million verdict for a construction worker, who was an illegal immigrant injured on the job when he fell from a scaffold; and $5.85 million settlement for a construction worker. Most recently, the firm obtained a $59,170,000 verdict in a case in which a child suffered burn injuries at school due to the negligence of The Board of Education of the City of New York. This was the No. 1 school verdict in New York State in 2019. On August 10, 2020, the trial court denied defendants motion to set aside the verdict.
